PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Product Manager with 5+ years of experience in scaling B2B SaaS products across DOOH and programmatic ad tech, combined with hands-on experience independently designing, building, and shipping AI-powered production applications. Leveraged generative AI development tools (Claude AI, Replit AI Builder) to take products from requirement gathering through live deployment without dedicated engineering support, including CRM development and HubSpot integration, delivering measurable productivity gains and new revenue channels. Skilled in end-to-end product strategy, roadmap ownership, stakeholder management, and cross-functional leadership, with a growing specialization in building Order Management System & Payment solutions.

CORE COMPETENCIES

Product Strategy & Roadmapping | Microservice Architecture | Integration with Zoho Suite (Automated Invoice Generation & Payment Status Transparency to Connected ERP - Zoho Books & NetSuite) | User Research & Journey Mapping | Go-to-Market Execution | Cross-Functional Collaboration | Stakeholder & Dependency Management | Agile / Scrum Leadership | Data-Driven Decision Making | Market & Competitive Analysis | API-Driven Product Integration

SELECTED AI-BUILT PRODUCTS (INDEPENDENT, 0-TO-1)

AI Performance Mirror - HR Productivity Analytics Platform

- Independently designed and built an end-to-end AI-powered employee productivity platform for the HR department - from requirement gathering through production release - using generative AI development tools (Claude AI, Replit AI Builder), with no dedicated engineering resources.
- Integrated directly with the Zoho Sprint API to automatically pull task and time-tracking data, applying AI to generate day-to-day productivity and KRA-progress summary reports for HR review.
- Built two supporting modules - Calendar Insight (meeting load, time-management behavior, AI-generated meeting summaries) and Activity Insight (planned vs. unplanned task tracking) - feeding into a unified performance dashboard.
- Gave HR an independent, manager-agnostic view of employee productivity and progress, standardizing performance visibility across the organization.

Inventory Availability Viewer - Ad Inventory Self-Serve Platform

- Conceived and delivered a customer-facing OOH/DSP inventory visibility tool in 15 days, single-handedly owning UX design and build using AI development tools (Claude AI, Replit AI Builder), commissioned directly by the CEO.
- Delivered real-time visibility into billboard availability, pricing, and format (static/digital), enabling stakeholders and customers to browse inventory and submit requests directly on the platform.
- Increased platform accessibility for global stakeholders and customers, supporting a direct channel for inbound demand and revenue growth.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Senior Executive Product Manager | Moving Walls

Apr 2024 - Present

Leading product strategy, roadmap planning, and concept development for DOOH & programmatic OOH platforms serving enterprise advertisers across Asia.

- Own end-to-end product roadmap for the DOOH programmatic platform, prioritizing features based on market trends, user research, and competitive analysis.
- Lead cross-functional teams (engineering, design, business) to deliver seamless user experiences, aligning product goals with GTM strategy and customer feedback loops.
- Conduct focus groups, user interviews, and usability testing to validate product concepts before rollout, reducing development rework by ~30%.
- Drive product meetings with diverse stakeholders, fostering shared understanding of market insights and data-driven decision making across the organization.
- Manage roadmap and delivery of new features, overseeing dependencies, stakeholder management, and client support.
- Independently designed and shipped AI-assisted internal tools (see Selected AI-Built Products) to extend product impact beyond the core roadmap.
- Lead Salesforce integration to align sales, product, and reporting data across teams.

- Define and execute GTM strategy for new platform features, aligning cross-functional teams around launch readiness.
- Lead complete development of an Order Management System and Auction Mechanism for programmatic inventory transactions.
